No More Soft Coal.

A communication has been received by the Civics Club of Orange, from the management of the Erie Railroad, in which the corporation agrees to abolish the nuisance maintained by the use of soft coal on the company's engines which run through Orange to West Orange. The officials of the organization, who are highly elated at the compliance with their request by the company, and are encouraged to keep up the fight against the use of soft coal in the city. There are several bat factories which use bituminous fuel, and these will be urged to discontinue the practice.

Caught a Burglar.

The Newark police authorities on Monday turned over to Chief Gallagher of Montclair Harry McCroy, who was arrested by Detectives Sergeant Carroll and Long while trying to dispose of a bicycle in Newark. The arrest led up to the discovery that McCroy was a burglar and that he had perpetrated a robbery in Montclair.

A few days ago Carroll and Long learned that a young man had been disposing of silverware, clothing and other articles in second-hand stores on Canal street. They got a thorough description of him. For two days they watched in vain, and were about to give up the job on Friday night until another day when they saw a man answering the description of the one for whom they had been watching ride past on a wheel.

When the fellow dismounted and entered one of the second-hand stores, taking the wheel with him, the detectives followed. He was dickerling with the proprietor when they walked in. They questioned him as to where he got the wheel, and he told such contradictory stories that they concluded to take him up. They notified the Bloomfield and Montclair police, and later two burglaries were fastened on the prisoner.

One of the burglaries with which McCroy will be charged was committed at the residence of Arthur Schroeder, Upper Mountain Avenue, Montclair. The house was broken into and a lot of clothing and a valuable clock were stolen. The stolen articles were located where McCroy had disposed of them.

He was identified by the person who received them. The other burglary was committed last Thursday night at the residence of E. W. Boorum, which is a short distance from the Schroeder residence.

This house was also broken into during the night, and a bicycle, a valuable clock and other articles were stolen. These were also located by the police where McCroy had pawned them. The police have located considerable other property which McCroy sold or pawned and for which they expect to find owners.

New Jersey Boys in Camp.

For several weeks a contingent of the Waverly cadets of Jersey City have been camping on the hills back of the Northfield Seminary campus. The company consists of boys from the Waverly Congregational Church of that city, accompanied by their pastor, Rev. H. A. Briggs, under whom the cadets were organized and who has bought a 50-acre farm at Northfield on which he contemplates erecting buildings for the permanent headquarters of his fresh-air work.

The cadets are commanded by Lieutenant Gaddis of the Fourth Regiment of New Jersey and Mr. James C. Lang, a British veteran, formerly with the King's Scottish Guards. Their athletics are managed by W. R. Stickney of Williams College and Robert Gearey of Jersey City. All classes of boys go to make up the corps, no social distinctions being acknowledged, and no pocket money allowed in camp.

Sunday Home-Hall.

There is a movement on foot among church people and others to have the Sunday base-ball games on the Grove street grounds stopped. It is claimed that the Sunday games played there as advertised as being played in Bloomfield which is construed to carry the assurance that Bloomfield is a perfectly safe place for Sunday base-ball. The Grove street grounds are not far distant from the Newark city line, and most of the playing done there on Sunday is by Newark youths. Heretofore no complaint has been made to the police department about the Grove street games, and under the circumstances it has not been considered necessary for the police to take the initiative in the matter.

The Public Invited.

People are not generally aware that a religious service is held every Sunday at 4 P.M. in the Job Haines Home, Bloomfield and Watseking Avenue, to which the public would be gladly welcomed. To-morrow, Sunday, July 26, at 4 P.M. it is expected the services will be very interesting as Dr. Franklin C. Wells will conduct them and also will make an address. Those who have never visited the home will find an excellent opportunity to do so. The inmates are very glad to see their friends, and every body is their friend who calls upon them. Make them glad by your presence at the service to-morrow.

Simply A Suggestion.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CITIZEN: Sir: It is estimated that it will cost between three and four hundred dollars for a team of horses for the Truck Company, and after that the fixed charges will be $720 per annum for a driver, and an equal amount for feed and care. Why not give Loppacker or Hyer an opportunity to estimate on furnishing automobile power for the fire apparatus.

ELECTRIC.

At Cranberry Lake.

The management of the Cranberry Lake resort on the Lackawanna Railroad have added a new feature of amusement that will no doubt be of interest to those who enjoy bowling. A commodious building 40x40 feet has been erected, and two pair of bowling alleys installed by the Brunswick-Balke Company of New York. The alleys are strictly up to date and are first class in every particular.

Emergency Car.

A convenient and novel type of emergency car has recently been built in the shops of the Orange and Passaic Valley Railroad at Orange, from designs prepared by W. B. Brown, the company's master mechanic. The company has ten miles of track through the Oranges, which have now become part of the system of the Public Service Corporation.

The car has a framework of white oak, and is put together in a substantial manner so as to be able to carry heavy loads and stand hard usage. There are four doors, one being in the corner, another in the opposite end, and a sliding door on each side. With the four openings it is possible to load almost any piece of machinery in the car, no matter how odd the shape or how large. The platforms are ventilated the same as any other car. The tower used is similar to the one used on the Trenton tower wagon. It is four feet square and is raised by a windlass from the outside of the car. It has a swinging platform and collapsible sides. When lowered to the roof of the car it fits perfectly into position and the roof is watertight. Directly under the tower platform are several small boxes in which material used by the wiremen is kept. The car is large enough to contain enough sand in bags to sand the entire road, ladders, a reel of wire, and the necessary tools to make rapid repairs.

To Eliminate Mosquitoes.

A co-operative organization for the extermination of mosquitoes was formed in Newark on Friday night of last week. The meeting was held in the rooms of the Newark Board of Health and representatives were present from Orange, East Orange, Montclair, Bloomfield, South Orange, Harrison, Summit, Springfield, Irvington, Belleville, Vailsburg and Millburn. From other near-by municipalities were received assurances of co-operation.

Dr. F. W. Becker was chosen temporary president, and Health Officer David C. Chandler temporary secretary. A committee consisting of Health Officer Horatio N. Parker of Montclair, Health Officer Seymour P. Gilbert of Bloomfield, and Dr. Becker was authorized to report at a meeting in the near future a plan for permanent organization.

The meeting will be called when the report is ready. Elimination of breeding areas is the object in view. This, according to the savants whose ideas have furnished the basis of action, means the elimination of the mosquito.

Spencer Miller of the South Orange Improvement Society, who has been personally superintending the work of oiling the stagnant waters in that village, said he believed the drainage method of fighting the mosquito pest was undoubtedly the best. Oil was used in South Orange, he said, because under existing circumstances it was not practicable to drain.

At Hillside Track.

The management at Hillside bicycle track, Belleville, announces that the best races of the season will take place on the track to-morrow. There will be two professional and three amateur races. In the professional races the best riders in the world will appear. In the three amateur races will appear Hurley, Billington, and about one hundred other riders.

At 5 P.M. at Chase.

James L. Hedges of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, caused the arrest of John McLaughlin, Wednesday, for driving a horse unfit for work. Recorder Post fined McLaughlin fifteen dollars. The fine was paid under protest.
